

Join the HOOP Network of Cities and Regions!

The HOOP Network of Cities and Regions helps territories improve the valorisation of biowaste and wastewater by facilitating knowledge exchange and mutual learning.

Who is it for?

The Network is open to organisations that plan, organise, or operate municipal waste management or wastewater treatment, for instance local or regional authorities, or waste management companies.

Why join?

-  In-person knowledge exchange activities
Members are invited, and financially supported, to take part in various activities such as capacity building events and HOOP Study Tours.
-  Urban bioeconomy resources
Good practice factsheets, guidance documents, and validated resources on bioeconomy are available in the HOOP Virtual Academy.
-  Self-assessment tool for circularity
Access to the HOOP Bio-Circularity Label, a ranking system to serve as a baseline for green policies and to boost investment projects.
-  Network and connect
Learn from more than 40 pioneering cities and regions around Europe through the Urban Circular Bioeconomy Hub.
-  Expert advice and best practices
HOOP technical experts are on hand to share information and practical solutions, including via monthly HOOP Lunch Talks and one-to-one capacity building meetings.
